

Citizens's Summit on the Information Society
Main Programme

Round Table on Human Rights and the Information Society
Thursday November 17, 2005 – 10:15-12:15

Organizers☐

- The WSIS Civil Society Human Rights Caucus
- The International Federation of Human Rights Leagues

Moderators☐

- Rikke Frank Joergensen, DIHR, Denmark/WSIS Civil Society Human Rights Caucus
- Meryem Marzouki, IRIS, France/WSIS Civil Society Human Rights Caucus

Speakers☐

- Ziad Abdel Samad, The Arab NGO Network for Development, Lebanon (economic rights and development in the Arab world)
- Fadi Al Qadi, Human Rights Watch, Egypt (censorship and control in MENA countries)
- Sharon Hom, Human Rights in China, USA (China and the information society: what's at stake)
- Deborah Hurley, Harvard University, USA (regulation on cybercrime and privacy issues)
- Charley Lewis, The Link Center, South Africa (workers rights and labor rights)
- Antoine Madelin, The International Federation of Human Rights Leagues, France (responsibility of corporations)
- Dmitri Vitaliev, Frontline, Ireland (methods of electronic security for human rights activists)